

You're invited to a Family Play Date!

Come play at your library!

The Reading Public Library is a Family Place Library!

This means we have lots of special materials for families with young children, including toddler books, great toys to play with, and a helpful parenting section. Check-out all of our resources at one of our Fall Play Dates!

What's a play date? The library opens early especially for you! Play with your children at our special play stations filled with fun toys, read special pop-up and flap books, sing songs and meet and chat with other parents, and get parenting and community information.

Nurses from Nurse Family Partnership will also be at the library to talk to and answer questions!

This program is FREE and perfect for small children from birth to 5 years old..

Get information on:

- 9/13 How can I raise my child to be a reader?
- 9/20 What sort of art projects can I do with my child?
- 9/27 How can I introduce my child to music?
- 10/4 How and when do I potty train my child?
- 10/11 What are developmental milestones?

Every Monday from September 13th to
October 2nd
10 am to 11 am

To register, fill out and return this form or call the library at 610-655-6350.

Reading Public Library Children's Department

100 S. 5th St.

Reading, PA 19602

Parent/Guardian's Name: _____

Child's name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____